ABOUT SERAX

Serax is a Belgian design brand, creating contemporary homeware in collaboration with leading international designers and makers. From dinnerware, accessories, lighting, pottery and furniture, the Serax collections are imagined by both established designers and new talent, each with their own distinctive vision and design signature.

Their creations are realised by skilled craftspeople from across the globe. While unique in design and materiality, the collections remain true to Serax's core philosophy of accessibility, quality and functionality.

Serax dinnerware reflects a wide range of materials and styles: from refined bone china to tactile ceramic stoneware. Each collection is thoughtfully created with leading international designers to elevate your dining experience. Indulge in a complete tableware set or curate your own mix of teapots, cake stands, dessert plates, jugs and serving dishes from your favourite creators.

Sergio Herman

SILHOUETTE, INKU & SURFACE

The Sergio Herman collections for Serax draw on the diverse local and international influences that have shaped his career as a world-class chef, restaurateur and designer of spaces and objects.

Herman is deeply connected to the province of Zeeland, where he began his career at the family-owned restaurant Oud Sluis in Sluis – a small town near the Belgian-Dutch border – transforming it into a culinary destination. Under his creative direction, Oud Sluis achieved three Michelin stars and was named one of The World's 50 Best Restaurants for eight years.

In 2013, he closed Oud Sluis to focus on new projects. Today, Sergio Herman is at the helm of the Sergio Herman Group, one of Europe's most creative restaurant groups. Together with a team of specialists, he has developed several multi-award-winning fine-dining restaurant concepts: 'Le Pristine' (Antwerp, Belgium & Singapore), 'Pure C', 'AIRrepublic' and 'Blueness' (Antwerp, Belgium and Cadzand-Bad, The Netherlands): as well as the cult culinary French fries project 'Frites Atelier' (Antwerp, Brussels, Ghent, Belgium and The Hague, Roosendaal, The Netherlands).

His collections are beautiful and practical, informed by hands-on experience in his kitchens and the aesthetics and culinary experiences he has encountered over his thirty-year career.

Kelly Wearstler

ZUMA & DUNE

Kelly Wearstler, founder and principal of Kelly Wearstler Design Studio, is an American designer creating multi-faceted, experiential residential, hospitality, commercial and retail environments as well as expansive collections of lifestyle product designs and brand collaborations.

Wearstler is internationally recognized with distinctive design awards by numerous publications – including Architectural Digest's AD 100; Elle Décor's The A-List; Wallpaper Magazine's Top 20 Designers and Time Magazine's The Design 100.

A multi-layered, stimulating sensory experience is at the center of Wearstler's design approach. Through an exploration of materiality, color, forms and an intuitive juxtaposition of contemporary and vintage, architectural and organic, graphic and instinctual, she curates a wealth of experiences into every space. Wearstler believes that honoring history, while also experimenting with futuristic technology, is imperative to pushing the boundaries and challenging the rules. One of the key forces behind the rise of the designer hotel in the early 2000s, Wearstler is currently designing for a new age of elevated residential hotel living with a distinctive vision of authentic cultural immersion and site-specific design. Wearstler received her academic training in interior, architectural and graphic design and is the author of six design books.

Ann Van Hoey	NIDO

“With the Nido collection I believe I have reinvented classic white tableware – Nido is the combination of simple high-quality fine bone china with the modern twist of several graphic patterns.”

Ann Van Hoey has been designing tableware in fine bone china for Serax for over a decade. Always exploring her passion for craft, materials and mathematics, Ann’s design process for her Nido tableware takes inspiration from the geometric forms involved in the digital processes used to generate her moulds.

While creating the computer drawings, she was fascinated by the digital construction lines, developing them into a series of patterns that work in concert as a versatile set. Selecting very fine porcelain fired at high temperatures was crucial for these complex shapes and structures to be made with such accuracy.

When designing the basic forms of her Nido collection, Ann first took into account the stackability of its shapes, an absolute must for the hospitality industry. She also designed a traditional round plate with a generous diameter so that any chef has a surface large enough to present festive dishes.

For the glaze finishes, Ann chose a translucent thin glaze that highlights the character of the flawless white porcelain throughout the set. On other select shapes, she chose a subtle jade-green celadon that adds a warmth when combined with natural white.

Marie Michielssen

LA MÈRE

Marie Michielssen has been designing for Serax more than 25 years. She has created countless objects inspired by and intended for everyday life. Her designs are functional but aesthetic at the same time thanks to her artisanal approach and choice of soulful materials.

“Dans les yeux de ma mère, il y a toujours une lumière.” Arno

La Mère, the first ceramic tableware line by Marie Michielssen, is an ode to family and the unique experiences of motherhood and grandmotherhood. Embracing the shared meal as a moment that brings people together in otherwise fast-paced lives, the collection reflects the often intuitive roles women have inhabited in family life through the generations.

La Mère aspires to answer the natural human need for food and community; a sense of warmth and connectedness. And what is more beautiful than bringing together family and friends around a carefully-laid table? Eating good food together is much more than a basic need to fulfill. The stories we exchange and the time we spend with each other strengthens the relationships we sometimes risk losing in the daily hustle and bustle. La Mère tableware is there for everyone who cares about hospitality regardless of the occasion.

Tomorrowland	UNITY

Serax and Tomorrowland—two internationally acclaimed Belgian brands—have joined forces to create Unity, a tableware collection where simplicity in form meets magical design. Just as Tomorrowland unites people from all over the world through music, Unity aims to bring people together around the dining table, whether for an intimate family meal or a lively dinner with friends.

Crafted from timeless white porcelain and mouth-blown glass, the collection features minimalist shapes adorned with hand-drawn illustrations by Tomorrowland's in-house creative team. Birds, butterflies, and fantastical plants evoke the festival's dreamlike world, echoing a new kind of nature-inspired art nouveau. With hand-engraved details and a deep respect for craftsmanship, Unity reflects the shared vision of both brands: to create refined, meaningful experiences through design.

Marni

MIDNIGHT FLOWERS

Founded in 1994, Marni is recognized as one of the most artistic, colour-savvy, life embracing and off-beat fashion brands of today. Renowned for its subversive collections, Marni has consistently challenged the traditional codes of fashion and the seriousness of dressing up, celebrating individuality through its distinctive approach to materials and colours, combined with a unique taste for prints and shapes.

Marni's quirky elegance is a range of possibilities, a lifestyle with an avant-garde spirit that holds a constant dialogue with the world of art, finding ultimate expression in special collaborations and capsule collections.

"Marni is a brand appreciated for its distinctive approach to materials and colours, our irreverent attitude to mixing different prints and forms creates a language that is unique to the brand, and one that is evident in this tableware collection at a single glance. Despite the apparent dissonances in bringing to life a ready-to-wear collection and a tableware series, there are in fact many subtle touch points. Both leave space to dialogue, materiality, tactility and sensorial emotions, and by anchoring the new line to these notions, we translated Marni's creativity through a new mean of expression." Francesco Risso

Since 1984, Antwerp jewellery designers Wouters & Hendrix have been bending the rules of traditional jewellery making and wearing. The brand was born in an avant-garde movement in the eighties, when the world of fashion and design changed forever as Belgian fashion designers such as Walter Van Beirendonck and Martin Margiela launched their pioneering collections.

The designers behind the atelier - Katrin Wouters and Karen Hendrix - managed to build an international reputation by creating jewellery that strikes the right balance between art and wearability. Since then, the brand has continued to take shape in a dialogue with surrealism, an art movement from the 1920s that explored dream-like imagery.

Wouters & Hendrix combine the dreamy and playful subversion of surrealism with outstanding craft for their designs, which are all handmade in their Antwerp atelier. Together with Serax, the jewellery designers now venture into new territory with a line of crockery and tableware while staying true to their brand DNA. All their designs have that same hint of magic, that same artistic twist. Because your home also deserves its own jewellery.

Annebet Philips

CARTE BLANCHE

Dutch designer Annebet Philips makes her debut at Serax with a remarkable coffee and tea set entitled Carte Blanche. Annebet translated classic cups and saucers into simple, naïve shapes made of cardboard—the same material often used for the first quick prototypes. As if a child had cut them out with scissors. These playful cardboard shapes were then quite literally transformed into porcelain, with the spontaneity of the initial designs fully preserved. In fact, all the fold lines and uneven edges were retained and are accentuated with hand-painted, deliberately irregular lines.

The result is a uniquely playful collection that evokes the magic of the very first idea: the moment when, as a designer brimming with inspiration, you begin cutting your first models from cardboard; the moment of the blank page, the untouched sheet, when anything is still possible. In short: Carte Blanche. The set includes espresso cups, a cappuccino cup, a tea mug with matching saucers, a milk jug, and a teapot.

Roos Van de Velde

PERFECT IMPERFECTION

Roos Van de Velde is a visual artist who is inspired by nature. Nature is the thread that runs through all of her designs with a recurring and strong underlying presence. Her porcelain tableware, launched in 2009, symbolises innovation in different fields. It was the first time a tableware collection for restaurants and hotels was produced of which the imperfection, the flaws and the coincidence during the production process were given a reason to exist.

The tableware is like balancing on a thread, seeking the perfect imperfection. This porcelain range is a symbol of innovation in several ways. It is the first time a collection is produced in which imperfection, defectiveness and coincidence are given the chance to play their part during the production process. Hence the name, the Perfect Imperfection. The collection is modular, the ratios are proportional, and all items are nicely attuned to one another.

Ann Demeulemeester	RA & DÉ

Ann Demeulemeester founded her eponymous fashion label with long-term creative partner Patrick Robyn in 1985 and quickly became a key figure in redefining the voice of fashion internationally. In 2014 she stepped down from her fashion label and has since been exploring a variety of new formats, including sculpture and ceramics.

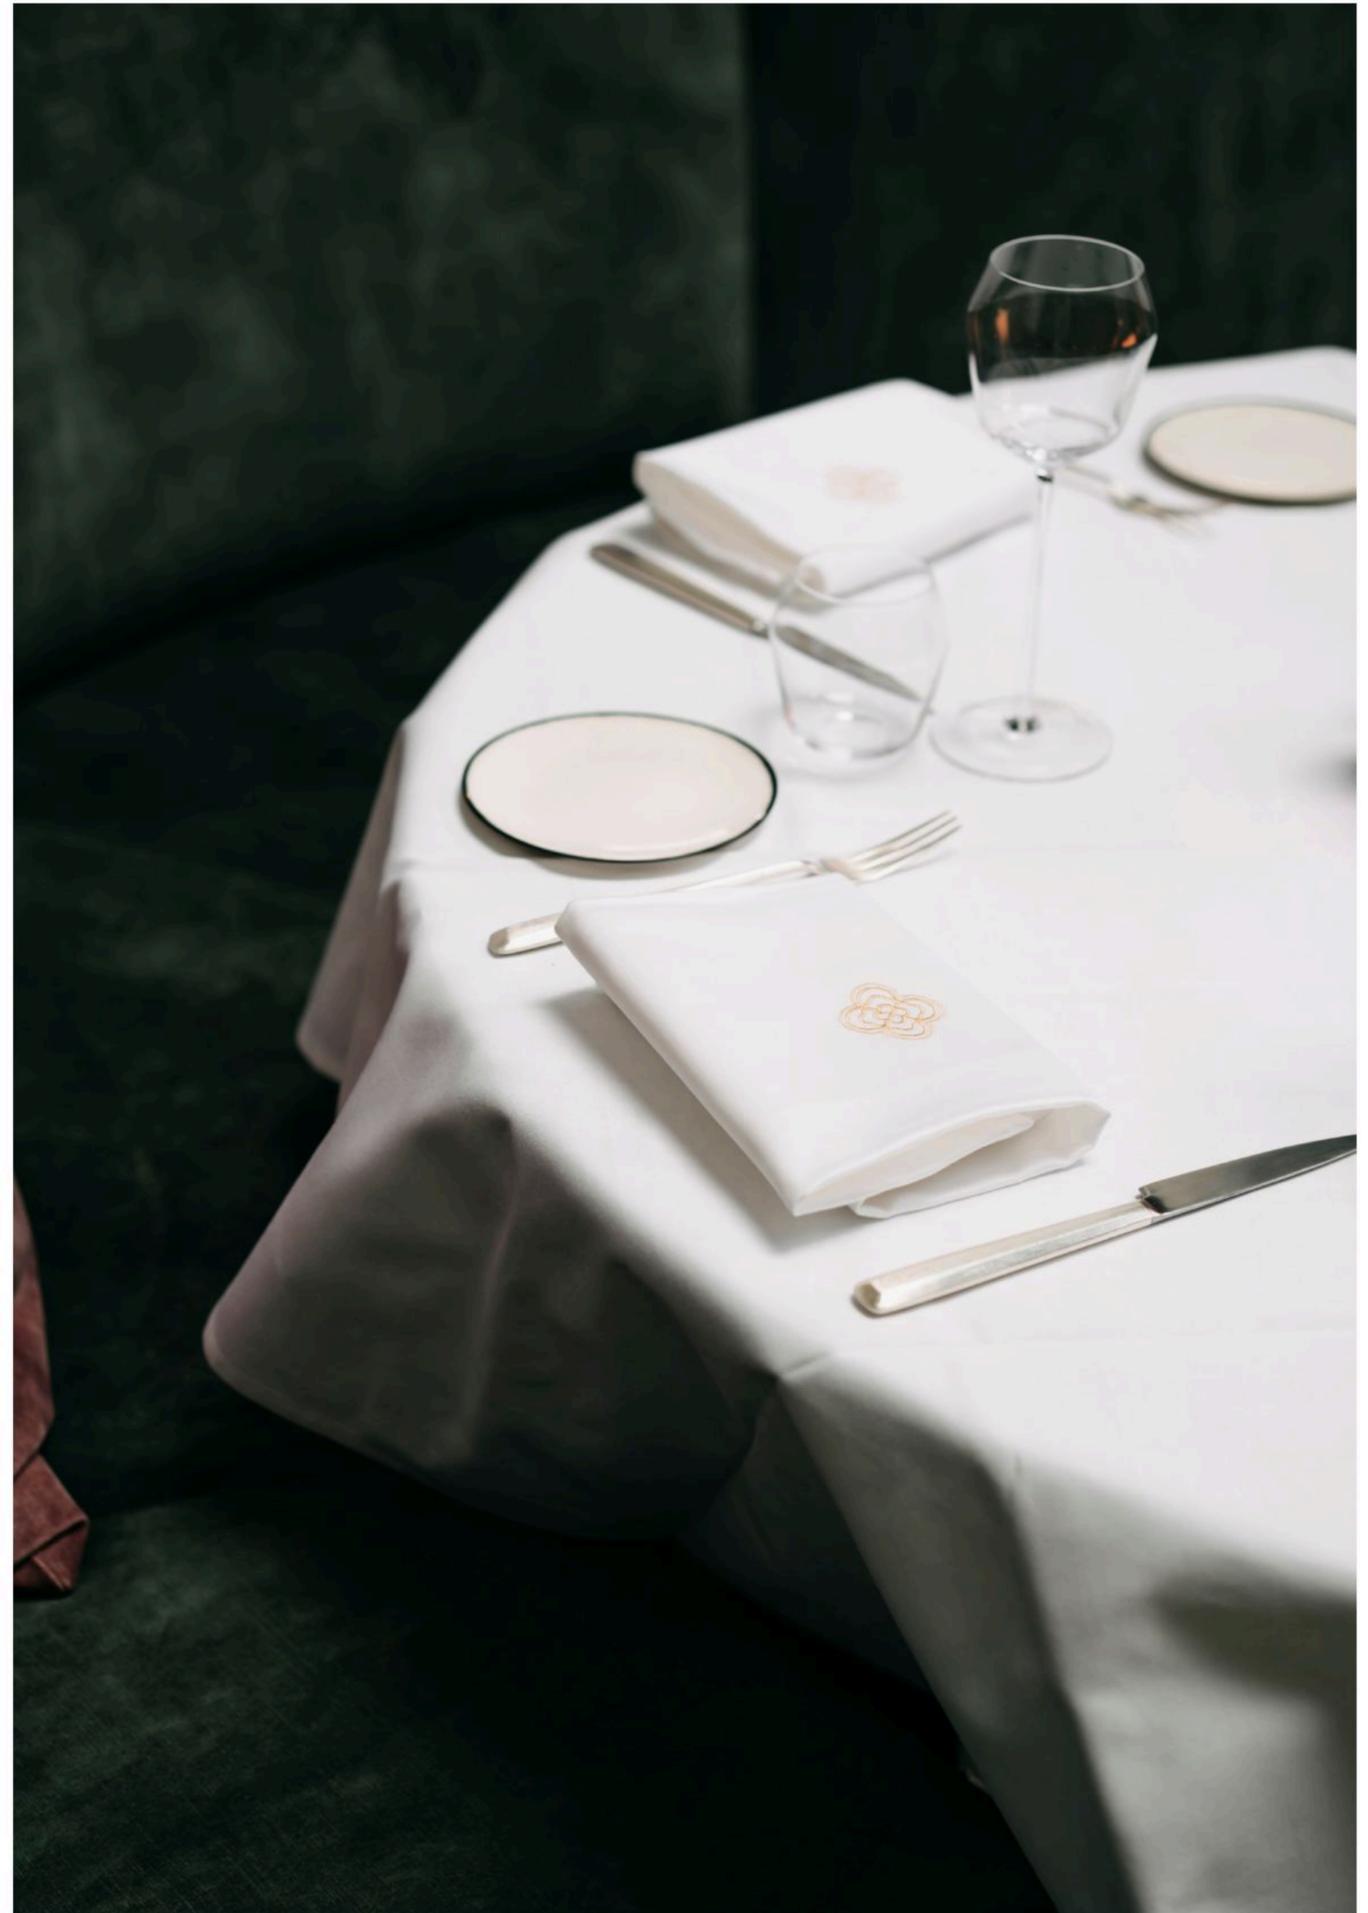

Since 2019 Demeulemeester has been collaborating with Serax to produce collections of porcelain (Dé and Ra), cutlery and glassware.

Ann Demeulemeester is known to represent an intelligent approach to design – rising above trends and instead offering a continually evolving world that is both deeply personal and profoundly relevant to its context – thanks to its integrity and fierce independence. In essence, Demeulemeester’s work continues to explore and celebrate contrasts – a beauty that is found in the interplay between strength and fragility, structure and nonchalance, poetic and radical, preciousness and functionality.

Anita Le Grelle

TERRES DE REVES

Anita Le Grelle was born and raised in Antwerp, where she also gained her degree in graphic design. After working in advertising for a while, she moved to London with her family. While raising her kids there, she also attended sculpture classes at the Royal College of Art until achieving a diploma there too in 2000. For years, her works have been on display at numerous exhibitions in Belgium and London.

It was rather by coincidence that she ended up in the world of pottery in 2013. And how! In no-time, the demand for her creations became so great that she decided to continue along this path professionally: Terres De Rêves is both the name of her company and of her collection. The collection has evolved into a versatile range of tableware and accessories.

Anita is known for her understated forms, and this candle holder is no exception. It is an almost archetypal object that stays true to the very essence of what a candle holder is: a stand that adds a subtle touch of elegance to the table. The blue and green glazes, on the other hand, are less traditional and display a unique shine and depth of color.

Vincent Van Duysen

CENA & PASSE-PARTOUT

Vincent Van Duysen's collections for Serax epitomise the pureness of form and intuitive relationship with materials that have helped cement his reputation as one of Europe's leading architects and designers.

After early experiences in the studios of influential Italian post-Modernist Aldo Cibic and Belgian interior designer Jean de Meulder, Van Duysen was quick to establish his own path, leading to the launch of his practice in Antwerp – the city that has been his home since the 1980s.

He quickly garnered international acclaim for his ability to create distinctively atmospheric, serene and tactile spaces in which every element is connected and considered: a "total environment".

Over a career spanning more than three decades, he has refined this approach, applying it at every scale. From buildings to chairs, each project is richly layered, drawing on influences from art history and Modernist architecture and design, and combining a deep respect for natural materials and colour palettes with a singularly contemporary sensibility.

Ottolenghi	FEAST

Introducing Yotam Ottolenghi, the visionary chef behind London's culinary sensation. With six beloved delis and restaurants under his belt, Ottolenghi has become synonymous with innovation and flavor. Boasting eight best-selling cookery books, including the iconic "Plenty," "Jerusalem," and "Simple," Ottolenghi has inspired food enthusiasts worldwide.

His culinary prowess has earned him accolades, including two James Beard awards in the US and the esteemed UK National Book Award. As a columnist for the Saturday Guardian for over thirteen years and a regular contributor to The New York Times, Ottolenghi continues to inspire and educate with his culinary expertise.

But Ottolenghi's influence extends beyond the kitchen. His unwavering dedication to championing vegetables and redefining "exotic" ingredients has sparked what many call "The Ottolenghi effect" – a celebration of vibrant, bountiful meals bursting with color and sunshine.

For his first range of tableware & vases, Feast & Sicily, Ottolenghi partnered with Serax. Together they succeeded in translating his culinary narrative into tangible objects, bridging the gap between the earthy and the sophisticated, tradition and novelty.

Inspired by the creative genius of his friend and collaborator Ivo Bisignano, Ottolenghi's tableware collection embodies honesty, expressiveness, and joyful vibrancy – mirroring the bold flavors and colors that define his culinary creations.

Pascale Naessens

VERDE LANZA & PURE

Pascale Naessens is a best-selling culinary author in Belgium. She is a leading voice for pure and healthy eating. A number of her books have been translated into French, English, German and Chinese. Her first book, in which she explains her food philosophy, was published in 2010. Her focus is on a natural way of eating, more a lifestyle than a diet. She is also a qualified restaurateur and took a number of culinary courses ranging from macrobiotic cooking to classes in top restaurants.

Her encounter with the Tunisian Sabiha marked the beginning of her fascination with ceramics. She embarked on her own studies and attended numerous courses on ceramics, glazing and firing techniques. She created a ceramic tableware line in her own workshop and took her prototypes to Serax. This collaboration resulted in 'Pure' and more recently the Verde Lanza collection, inspired by Lanzarote, where she often resides.

Merci

LA NOUVELLE TABLE & MEAL X3

Merci is a magical place located in the heart of the historic Parisian district of Haut-Marais. Founded in 2009 by Bernard and Marie-France Cohen, it is more than a fashion store, more than a concept store, it is a place where people can meet to have a drink or meal at one of the cosy catering facilities while they are shopping for the latest fashion or designer objects for their homes.

With Merci, the French word for thank you, Bernard and Marie-France Cohen wanted to express their gratitude to life, to say thanks to all the creative talents that have made their success possible. Therefore, Merci has also offered a platform to numerous young designers who are looking for a way to introduce their work to the public. After all, success enables generosity. This generosity is yet again reflected in the fact that, from the very beginning, the founders of Merci decided that part of the profits would be used to finance an endowment fund to finance education and development projects in southwestern Madagascar. And with that, their final 'merci' goes to all their customers who make this project possible.

Frédéric Gautier	FCK

After being an artistic director for over 20 years, handling the launch of various cultural projects, French designer Frédéric Gautier embarked on studies at the École du Paysage in Versailles, where he became acquainted with modelling and ceramics. Due to his fascination for brutalism, Gautier went in search of a type of clay that closely resembles concrete after the firing process. Since launching, his FCK signature has adorned all of his creations working with this material. Passionate about growing food, he is also doing research about tools that were once used to feed oneself with. With his enthusiasm for events, Frédéric Gautier also shares his work in a variety of spaces, turning exhibitions into performances.

“Although I am immensely interested in Brutalism, I am not charmed by really brutal objects. I am mainly looking for simplicity and functionality.” For Gautier, it is particularly important that the user is encouraged to be creative with the shape: to create figures, delineate spaces, serve tea, or to simply rest their feet. Following Frédéric Gautier’s striking statement with his widely praised FCK tableware, he now presents an extension of his work in concrete. Gautier is a late bloomer in the design world. Only after more than twenty years in the cultural sector did he trade his job for an unpredictable livelihood as a designer – although ‘designer’ might not really be the right word when it comes to Frédéric Gautier. Gautier is an artist, an artist in concrete. No design is noncommittal, behind every object there is carefully considered inspiration, a story, or a technique he has worked on for months. Gautier’s brutalist work leaves no one unmoved. You either love it or hate it.

Bertrand Lejoly	COSE
-----------------	------

Cose is a collection of accessories that can by no means be pinned down to the bathroom. The bowls, jars and soap dispenser can be used equally in the kitchen, to serve the aperitif, or as storage containers. The rounded lines fit perfectly into the simple and refined design language of the Belgian designer, Bertrand Lejoly. The craftsmanship involved in the manufacture of these porcelain objects in off-white and off-black also ensures that Cose looks unique and certainly not sterile.

Antonino Sciortino

METAL SCULPTURES

Antonino Sciortino (1962) is an artist and designer with a peculiar background. As a child, he learned the trade of ironsmith in his brother's workshop in Bagheria, a small town in Sicily. At the same time, Sciortino commutes to Palermo for his other passion: dance. After a solid career as a choreographer at the highest level, he settles in Milan in 2003 to set his attention on the art of ironwork. Today Sciortino is known for his applications to the technique of 'filo cotto', literally translated as 'boiled thread'. His artful design consists of flexible, iron wirework inspired by the elegant movements of dance.

Do you still remember those glass domes with a winter world inside, which you shook to make snowflakes whirl round? A touch of magic, encased in glass. It was this enchantment that caused designer Bela Silva to set about creating the glass collection Eternal Snow. She gave the four glasses, two tall and two low models, a playful touch by designing the foot and chalice in an imperfect shape. The texture of Eternal Snow is smooth, although the glass was blown into an atypical shape. Playful bubbles are visible in the foot. The round shapes and soft colours (smoky grey for the foot and soft green for the chalice) are inspired by the colours of the night sky.

Bela is a true citizen of the world and often incorporates impressions from other cultures in her ceramics. She has named the dishes and bowls Japanese Kimonos because the patterns and colours remind her of Japan. It is a particularly optimistic series, an ode to summer, to picnics on the grass, to flowers and blue skies. Perfect for bringing a touch of spring into your home.

Bea Mombaers: "All items of the Table Accessories by Bea Mombaers for Serax come from my B&B and my love of welcoming guests. When hosting a party, you often discover that something is missing. This collection started with the need for a stylish ice bucket and eventually became an extensive range of table accessories." In her distinctive style, interior stylist Bea Mombaers further expands her eclectic universe with unique table accessories made of acacia wood and matt polished stainless steel – whether or not finished with a gold-coloured PVD coating.

Marttine Keirsebilck	DUSK

The clay itself – this soft, supple, fire clay – inspired designer Martine Keirsebilck to design a series of plates, bowls and dishes. The result: DUSK. A serving set with a deep charcoal grey color. The color is unconventional and demands the user's creativity and inspiration.

Maarten Baas

INNER CIRCLE

Maarten Baas is one of the most renowned European contemporary designers. He founded the base of what we call today Dutch contemporary design. There are few designers who embrace spontaneity and madness in the creative process as Baas does. In his younger years, he set priceless design classics on fire, later on he welded the most phantasmal closets of all time. After that, sketchy pencil lines on paper were brought to life.

His work reveals the inner child that's hidden somewhere deep inside all of us and the design community fiercely appreciates it. Maarten Baas is renowned for his playful objects that evoke the imperfection of the human hand instead of the straight line of the machine. For his new collaboration with valerie_objects, it is no different. Inner Circle is a large set of tableware objects, from plate to water can, contriving that typical human and playful Maarten Baas feel. Every object is a materialisation of imperfect circles that Baas drew by hand. The irregular shapes combine well, making it easy to create an organic composition on the dinner table. 'When a chef does the plating of a dish, he does it with great care but avoids perfect geometry', Baas explains. 'There has to be a certain schwing to it. I created Inner Circle in the same way'.
